

CSVA Annual Conference

Toronto – November 14-16, 2011

Less than 4 weeks until the CSVA Annual Conference! “Innovation through Value Analysis” is shaping up to be a great time for knowledge transfer, with speakers from Montreal to Edmonton, from Toronto to New York City and the UK. This week, it is time to:

- 1) Take advantage of the special room rate! The special room rate at the newly renovated Delta Chelsea ends this month. Reserve your room now to save big. (Please book your room directly with the Delta Chelsea hotel at 1-800-243-5732 (toll free) or book online HERE. Make sure to say you are attending the Canadian Society of Value Analysis conference to receive the special rate or quote group code GFC3MM.)
- 2) Register for the Conference. The best deal is the three day conference including the reception and dinner on Monday night. Click HERE for the registration form.
- 3) Finally, make your travel plans. If you are local, keep in mind the Delta Chelsea is conveniently located on the TTC Yonge Street Line. Is Via Rail or GO Rail an option for you? The hotel and conference venue are a short distance from Union Station, saving you the driving and parking hassle.

For more information on the conference, including the program and sponsors, visit the CSVA website. Register today and we will see you in Toronto!
